The Trevarthen Series: Rhythm, Sympathy & Human Being Infant communication

Colwyn Trevarthen was one of the leading infant scientists of the 20th century. His death in 2024 has left colleagues across the world keen to have his ideas reach new audiences, and the publication of this new edited book will help. This webinar course has been created to welcome anyone interested in the rhythms of human connection to meet the contributors and learn directly from them.

6 May – Vasudevi Reddy, UK
13 May – Maya Gratier, France
20 May – Hisako Watanabe, Japan
27 May – Ben Schogler, UK

Cost: £50 for all 4 sessions
